

Breathing Skins

leaf-inspired self-regulating origami-based foldable structures

Hands-on workshop
4 to 6 June 2020

The relation of leaf design to plant hydraulics and thermal performance could inform humidity and temperature control in building facades.

Envisioning smart facades for architectural scale objects, this workshop invites an exploration of the rich portfolio of leaf shapes and margin designs, in a prototype-oriented 3D geometry setting.

To participate, contact:
mattersofactivity@hu-berlin.com